

First mosaics finished in Nablus

Triple Exposure is happy to announce the completion of the project's first two mosaics: one at the TYO Center in Nablus and another along the main street of Nablus.

FWEN participant takes part in the 10,000 Women program

Nehaya, a participant in TYO's Fostering Women Entrepreneurs in Nablus (FWEN) project, was chosen to participate in the 10,000 Women program, sponsored by Goldman Sachs, at the American University in Cairo.

Leveraging women's potential as social change agents

TYO participates in the annual Clinton Global Initiative Conference

TYO was thrilled to be back in New York last week for our third appearance at the Clinton Global Initiative (CGI)! This year CGI shined a light on global efforts to support women and girls. This theme resonated deeply with our ongoing work in Nablus and our cooperation with the Cherie Blair Foundation for Women, including the launch this fall of our new joint-project in northern Lebanon. Highlights of our participation this year, including our recent commitments to action, can be found on the TYO blog.

TYO hosts Steven Strauss, in cooperation with the US Consulate of Jerusalem

American small business expert Steven Strauss led a business workshop this month at the TYO Center. He discussed entrepreneurship strategies and recommendations that resonated with the entire audience from the young female entrepreneurs just starting out to the veteran business owners looking to break into the international arena.

